

2010/03465/FUL
2010/03466/LBC
2010/03467/LBC

I write to express my opposition to the above development.

This scheme is inappropriate on every imaginable criterion. It amounts to nothing less than environmental and social vandalism. It appears that the principle beneficiary will be a powerful supermarket chain. The losers will be the people of Hammersmith and Fulham. If the scheme goes ahead, be assured that they will not readily forget - or forgive - those who were responsible.

John Humphrys=